

WEEK FOUR

STEPHEN • ACTS 6:1-7:60

SAY THIS:

KEEP GOING BECAUSE GOD KNOWS THE END OF THE STORY.

REMEMBER THIS:

“Let us not become tired of doing good. At the right time we will gather a crop if we don’t give up.”

GALATIANS 6:9, NIV

DO THIS:

Play a game by telling your kids to think of a scale from 1-10. One being the easiest and 10 the absolute hardest. Think of things that require determination and rate that on the scale. For example, learning a new instrument is a level 6 or not eating candy for a day is level 2. Afterwards, ask them what is something they are determined to finish by the end of the school year or summer.

DETERMINATION:

DECIDING IT’S WORTH IT TO FINISH WHAT YOU STARTED

DETERMINED PARENTS

By Carey Nieuwhof

One of the reasons it’s so critical to help our kids live a determined life is that almost nothing happens on the first try. Fast forward twenty years and imagine your son or daughter grown up. Their character (including their determination) will directly impact what happens at work, at home, and in their families.

off. And that shouldn’t surprise us. Isn’t it true that, even as adults, few of us learn the lessons we need to learn on the first go-round? Isn’t it true most things don’t happen without some level of determination? Mastering a skill, developing relationships, growing faith and character, achieving a dream . . .

My friend Gary Reniecke shared some statistics from the world of sales that tell quite a story about determination. Studies have shown that:

- 48% of sales people never follow up with a prospect.
- 25% of sales people make a 2nd contact and stop.
- 12% of sales people make three contacts and stop.
- Only 10% of sales people make more than four contacts.

Why does this matter? Well, consider this:

- 2% of sales are made on the 1st contact.
- 3% of sales are made on the 2nd contact.
- 5% of sales are made on the 3rd contact.
- 10% of sales are made on the 4th contact.
- 80% of sales are made on the 5th to 12th contact.

Whether our kids ever choose sales as a career is beside the point. The point is determination and persistence pays

Most great things take time. And without determination, we’ll never see them realized. As a parent, you might need to become determined to teach values like determination. Rarely will a child pick up on what’s important on first try, and even if they embrace it early, it’s easy to get discouraged and follow a different course down the road. This isn’t just true in instilling determination in your child—it’s true of virtually everything that’s important.

All of this to simply say this: Don’t get discouraged if you didn’t succeed this week, or this month. So next week, next month, and next year, chip away at determination and encourage your family to do the same. Down the road, the payoff stands to be significant.
