Rules for Life:
Play well.
Finish strong.

Responsibility is showing you can be trusted with what is expected of you.

REMEMBER THIS

“Suppose you can be trusted with something very little. Then you can also be trusted with something very large.”

Luke 16:10a, NIRV

Week Four

Parable of the Bags of Gold
Matthew 25:14-30

Say This

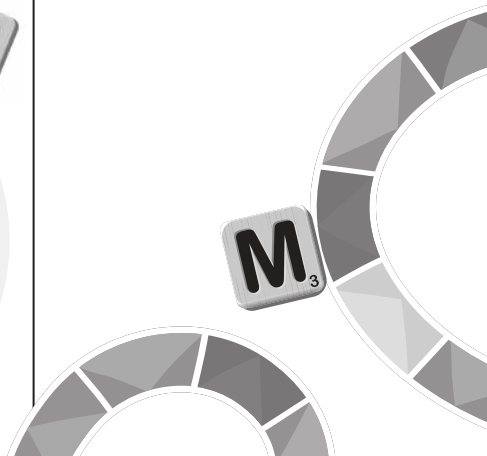

Make the most of what you've been given.

Do This

Drive Time

While in the car ask your child, “What is something you would like to be responsible for?” If it is within reason, work on a plan for you child to start that responsibility.

“As kids are growing up, we should involve them in practical responsibilities that they can accomplish at different ages that will allow them to experience the satisfaction of finishing work.”

— Dan Scott
